103 Fly Atlantic In Plane

Previous Record Is Shattered By 13 Passengers

MARHAM, England, Nov. 18.—(UP)—"The Champ," a U.S. Air Force Globemaster, arrived tonight from Mobile, Ala., with 103 men aboard—the most persons ever carried across the Atlantic by a plane.

Twenty-three hours after leaving Mobile, the giant four-engine plane touched down at the U.S. Air Force base, 85 miles northeast of London.

While most airmen in southern and western England were blacked out by fog, visibility at this base was two and a half miles. The previous trans-Atlantic air passenger record was 30. It also was set by an Air Force Globemaster.

The Champ is a veteran of the Berlin airlift. It set a performance record of 240 hours in 30 days in the United States last September.

Stolen Truck Rips Railing

A stolen truck was recovered by city police last night when it nearly plunged into a 60-foot ravine after it crashed into the 133 street and 101 avenue bridge.

Only a few minutes after the accident, they were unable to locate the truck's driver or passenger.

Army Private John Bette, of Slave Lake, was admitted to General Hospital with leg injuries.

He admitted he was riding on the back of the truck but claimed he did not know it was stolen.

Bette told police he had been picked up about an hour before the accident by a man he knew.

Brother Claims 1 Man Unable To Kill Sister

VANCOUVER, Nov. 18.—(CP)—A theory that two men were involved in the slaying of attractive Verne Blanche Fisher was advanced tonight by a member of her family.

David Fisher, 71-year-old brother, said she was too young for one man to handle.

"She was a strong, healthy woman," he told reporters following the inquest. "She weighed 120 pounds and was five-foot, seven tall. It would have taken more than one man to throw her from a bridge."

FOUND IN WATER

The 65-year-old state clerk was thrown off Killarney bridge. The body was found Nov. 9 near the bridge in the waters of False Creek.

Police blame a state man for the slaying, but no arrest has been made.

Casey Hints Grant Boost

CALGARY, Nov. 18.—(CP)—That the municipalities might benefit by way of increased grant from the oil-prosperous coffers of the provincial treasury after the legislative session next spring, today was given to the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts convention here by Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education.

Mr. Casey discussed the problems of educational finances and then mentioned the approximately $20,000,000 taken in on sale of oil leases by the province this year. He said this was actually capital and could not be spent as general revenue.

He pointed out that the budget had been approved this year before the money was received from the oil sales and that the cabinet would need legislative approval of any policy for using the funds.

"However, I am sure it is not their intention to hold back. Probably when the legislative session grants will be adjusted as it sees fit in view of the financial condition of the province," Mr. Casey commented.

Indian To Hang

NELSON, B.C., Nov. 18.—(CP)—William T. Swanson, young Cree, B.C. Indian, today was found guilty of wife murder and sentenced to hang Jan. 27.

"She had been violated, judging by the multiple bruises from head to her feet," Dr. T. R. Harner, coroner's pathologist, reported at the inquest.

The jury returned an open verdict, reporting death was caused by drowning and that bruises on the body were inflicted by "a person or persons unknown."

Sask. Intends To Enter Rental Control Field

REGINA, Nov. 18.—(UP)—Premier T. C. Douglas of Saskatchewan said today the province intends to enter the field of rental control.

Douglas, in a letter to Finance Minister Abbott, said the government of Saskatchewan plans to draw up legislation making it possible for the province to administer rental controls to the housing market.

In the meantime he asked that the question of rental control jurisdiction be placed before the Supreme Court of Canada.

Mr. Douglas also urged the federal government to withhold application of its recent rental decontrol order. He suggested that the present regulations be retained until such time as the legality of the province entering the field can be decided.

DOUBTFUL OF POWERS

Douglas added that Saskatchewan law did not permit the federal cabinet had power to carry out the order made by the finance minister "to veto the field of rental control to any province which makes a formal request for that effect."

Five Killed In Crash Of Bomber

Plane Taking Off To Hunt Another Crashes in Florida

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 18.—(UP)—Five airmen were killed when a B-29 crashed and burst into flames in the mudflats on the edge of Tampa Bay today after taking off for the giant search for another B-29 off Bermuda.

Four men survived the crash. Lt. Lloyd Street, base officer, said the B-29 took off from here for the Bermuda search area and was only a few miles out when it crashed into the mudflats on the edge of Tampa Bay.

The bomber came in from the south but failed to make the runway and crashed into the mudflats and flames in the mudflats on the edge of Tampa Bay.

WEATHER POOR

Minneapolis rough weather and poor visibility closed in just as search planes believed they were close to finding survivors of the American B-29 Superfortress which crashed in the Atlantic off Bermuda two days ago with 28 crew members aboard.

But scores of rescue planes took off at dawn at bases from Salem, Mass., to San Juan, Puerto Rico, to search the Atlantic.

Hope that at least some of the missing airmen still may be alive soared after a search plane which last reported sighting a red flare last night sighted a red flare off Hamilton, Bermuda, landed early today with further details.

The Canadian aircraft carrier Magnificent already was on route to the scene, and the U.S. coast guard cutter Barnstable, en route from Boston to Argentina, was diverted to the flare area.

Crash Trial Nears End

Manlaughter trial of William Trawney, 1948-49 street, this morning entered its final stages in Supreme Court and is expected to go to the jury some time late this afternoon.

Trawney, employee of an Edmonton packing plant, is facing the charge of following triple fatality in a car collision June 17 near Morinville.

Lois Galbraith, whose father and mother were killed, as well as 18-year-old Vincent Delaney, was on the witness stand for a brief time and under questioning by Crown Prosecutor Shurewood said he and Trawney were together in hospital June 18, the day following the accident.

Galbraith quoted Trawney as having said he was the driver of the other car.

"I told him my mother was killed," said Galbraith.

Galbraith then said: "He said I learned him not to drink while he was driving."

Trawney denied having made such a statement.

Chief Justice W. H. Howson then pointed to the earlier evidence given by Galbraith and questioned whether he (Trawney) was saying that the statement was a lie.

In city court today the husband, Peter Zotte, 38, of 8213-101 avenue, was charged with attempted murder and assault occasioning actual bodily harm.

Magistrate A. J. Miller remanded Zotte without plea until November 30. Application for bail, by defense counsel F. E. Crow, was denied.

"Police went to a great deal of trouble to get this man and I oppose bail," said assistant Crown prosecutor Guy Beusley.

Morally officer Dick Arund folded the hunted man in his home after the telephone call. He gave up without a struggle, according to police.

OURSLETER TO WRITE FOR THE BULLETIN

The master story teller of our time, Fulton Oursler, begins writing his heart-warming human story for The Bulletin tomorrow.

Here are the great truths of all time, stated in terms of modern tales, evolving from the simple but eternal philosophies of living people, for the real pen of Fulton Oursler is his heart.

From servants and celebrities, from stenographers and statesmen he draws his modern parables, and with a deft, human touch makes them portrayals of the time-honored laws of humanity so often forgotten in today's brash, hectic world.

If you like people, you will like Fulton Oursler's stories of people. You will like the penetrating understanding with which he writes, and his ability to rouse an inward vision and paint a lasting picture.

If you love his "Greatest Story Ever Told," you will appreciate again in his "Modern Parables," his earnest, intense desire to see Christian principles applied to daily living.

Tomorrow, the first of "Modern Parables," "The Great Performance," will appear in The Bulletin; like Fulton Oursler's other stories which will follow it will be one penned from the heart of a great contemporary teacher, story-teller and humanitarian.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY to 1922 Dodge yesterday when Holly and Cecil Morin attacked it with acetylene torch and sledge hammer. Old truck chugged through city streets for years, was sent to jailyard as police stepped up checks of old and ill-equipped vehicles.

Fire and Hammer Sound Last For 27-Year-Old Truck

An acetylene torch and a sledge hammer ended the 27-year career of one of Edmonton's better known jalopies yesterday.

The shattered framework went to the jailyard graveyard as police stepped up checks of decrepit vehicles on city streets.

Holly and Cecil Morin dealt the death blow which sent the 1922 Dodge truck clanging into the dust.

For years, since 1920, the ancient vehicle has chugged through the streets of Edmonton. It was used by Albert Koenig, an oil "rover-fitter" to haul barrels of used oil to his plant.

The old truck was sentenced to death just last week when tires gave out.

Koenig just couldn't get any 30 inch tires to fit the thing.

Although the shell of this patriarch of the pavement was crushed to junk, the motor is destined to see many more days of work.

The new owner of the 1922 relic says he's going to use it to run a merry-go-round or some other ride at the county fair next year.

It's one jalopy which will never have to pass an efficiency test again.

If the vote, likely to be taken between Dec. 15 and the end of the year, favors beer sales, the Alberta LCB will likely prohibit mixed drinking, it was said.

Mixed drinking is banned in Edmonton, but is permitted in St. Albert, plus miles from the city, and in other nearby towns and villages.

Beer Vote
Is Sought

Residents of West Jasper Place will vote before the end of the year to decide if beer is to be sold in the district.

But it's unlikely that mixed drinking will be allowed if sales are permitted, according to Alberta Liquor Control Board officials.

Petition seeking a local option vote to determine if beer sales are favored by the majority of residents has already been received by government officials. It was learned today.

If the vote, likely to be taken between Dec. 15 and the end of the year, favors beer sales, the Alberta LCB will likely prohibit mixed drinking, it was said.

Mixed drinking is banned in Edmonton, but is permitted in St. Albert, plus miles from the city, and in other nearby towns and villages.

Beer Vote
Is Sought

Residents of West Jasper Place will vote before the end of the year to decide if beer is to be sold in the district.

But it's unlikely that mixed drinking will be allowed if sales are permitted, according to Alberta Liquor Control Board officials.

Petition seeking a local option vote to determine if beer sales are favored by the majority of residents has already been received by government officials. It was learned today.

Our Sales To Cut 'For Years'

Britain Will Not Buy Anything It Can Do Without From Canada

VANCOUVER, Nov. 18. — (CP) — For the next few years, the United Kingdom will not buy anything in Canada it can do without, M. W. Mackenzie, deputy minister of trade and commerce, said last night.

That didn't mean that "all our trade is gone or going," he told Board of Trade here.

But it did mean that the British market for some Canadian products had disappeared and other products were in a vulnerable position.

The effect of reduced British buying in Canada would not be felt evenly across the Dominion, British Columbia would probably "feel the impact rather more than other parts of the country."

Some industries could take up the slack by increased sales to the domestic market. There had been no British purchases of B.C. timber in recent months, but west coast mills had been kept busy by U.S. and domestic orders. Although there was no longer a seller's market, the industry could operate at a satisfactory level with "a revival of enthusiasm to the money."

The money was seized when Gomori, now back in Hungary, tried to go home in 1947 via Halifax. The crown appeared before the Exchequer Court to establish claim to the money.

The court said Gomori was in the wrong, but felt he should get back "substantial part" of the money, which apparently constituted his life savings during many years in Canada.

Gomori sought to return to Hungary with $4,700 taken in a flannel money-belt. The court said he could have taken out all his declared assets by using a certain form. There was no explanation as to why he chose to "evade the act and its regulations."

City Protests Grant Terms
Edmonton has added its voice to the growing protest against the four per cent minimum federal assessment which municipalities must have to qualify for proposed grants in lieu of taxation.

Mayor Sid Parsons said today that city commissioners have wired the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities to say the city definitely opposes the stipulation.

The city has also recorded its opinion that, in the matter of federally-proposed new housing scheme all necessary preliminaries between federal and provincial governments should be cleared up in time for construction to start May 1.

EARLY ACTION WANTED
The term "low-cost" is used with reference to the plan, but I would prefer to call it "adequate" housing," said the mayor. "In any event, we think early action is the essence of the question."

Commissioners are not prepared to express any opinion about recent rent-hike measures until city council decides on a policy, said Mr. Parsons.

"I don't think there's much chance of that being done at Monday night's meeting, since it is intended primarily to discuss the two reports on the city's five defenses."

CN Appointments Are Announced
As a result of the promotion of P. A. Rooney, who was recently appointed district passenger agent at Edmonton, two further appointments were announced by the Canadian National Railways.

T. S. Webster, travelling passenger agent, Saskatoon, goes to Edmonton to succeed Mr. Rooney in his former post as city passenger agent. C. L. Woods is going from Winnipeg to Saskatoon, where he will succeed Mr. Webster.

Rich West Sure To Get Industries

OTTAWA, Nov. 18. — (CP) — Sparse population and lack of all accessible land-free port is hindering industrial development in the prairie provinces, Dr. H. R. Sanderson, director of information for the National Research Council, said last night.

However, he told a meeting of the Ottawa branch of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy that industries to supply the needs of the increasing population that "will come to this rich area are bound to develop."

TECHNICAL SURVEY
In a highly-technical survey of industrial development on the prairies, he pointed out that although high freight rates hampered efforts of prairie industries to expand into the export market, they did offer a measure of protection for the domestic prairie market.

Both Dr. Sanderson and Dr. T. E. Warren of the fuels division of the Bureau of Mines spoke of the rich natural resources of the prairie provinces such as oil, natural gas and coal.

A factor currently favoring establishment of new prairie industries was the "rapidly expanding economy" now being experienced in Alberta. He said "Alberta now is in the midst of a very real boom."

Manitoba Grads To Raise Funds
WINNIPEG, Nov. 18. — (CP) — University of Manitoba alumni association has opened a $100,000 drive for funds to help the university. It was announced today by Dr. C. C. Pearson, association president.

Purpose of the fund is to sponsor and promote library services, scholarships, research, the publication of research studies and to buy specialized equipment for research work.

PLYMOUTH, England. — (CP) — Coastguards from the Lizard to Portsmouth recently made a long search for the fishing boat Trevone. It was finally learned that the boat was safe in Plymouth harbor.

Canada long has been the major supplier of apples for Britain. American suppliers. The agency said it has earmarked $200,000 in Marshall-plan funds to help finance the purchases. The remaining sum will come from subsidy payments to fruit growers.

The weekly paper published today, said the "very violence" of the reaction of Canadian newspapers to discussion of Canada's economic position in left-wing papers here indicates "the stresses to which Anglo-Canadian relations will be submitted when the wheat contract comes up for renegotiation next summer."

The four-year Canada-United Kingdom wheat agreement now is in its final crop year which ends July 31, 1950. This year Canada is scheduled to ship another 340,000 bushels to Britain. The price will be $2 a bushel, "up from the 1948-49 crop."

At the conclusion of the treaty, Canada will have sold some 900,000 bushels of wheat during the four-year period to the United Kingdom.

The New Statesman asserted that anyone who thinks the British government will continue to pay the whole price in dollars is "living in a cloud-cuckoo land."

Canadian Writers Long Way To Go
VANCOUVER, Nov. 18. — (CP) — Canadian publishers would like to see more and better Canadian writing — "particularly better." Miss Gladys Neale, assistant manager of Macmillan Publishers' education department, said today on her arrival here.

Canadian writing is improving, she said, "but it has a long way to go yet, before it is established in the world of letters."

New Tank Cars Ready For CNR

(Special to The Bulletin)
MONTREAL, Nov. 18. — New all-steel tank cars, the first new equipment of this type to be purchased by the company since 1938, are now being received by the Canadian National Railways.

Each car has a load capacity of 8,000 imperial gallons. They will be used in western Canada to carry fuel oil for the railways' motive power there. The phosphate-ore tank cars from coal to oil is being increased. They will be equipped with riveted tanks and have a coil heating system for the handling of heavier types of oil in winter months. Inside length is 33 1/2 feet and inside diameter is 87 inches.

The Atlantic ocean is rising, but no floor warping is necessary as the rise is less than two feet a century.

Important Blood Finding Claimed
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18. — (AP) — Accidental discovery of a mysterious difference between the blood of men and women — a finding which appeared destined to save the lives of thousands of babies — was reported yesterday to American child specialists. The discovery is that the blood of women contains some potent factor which gives infants a new degree of protection against jaundice of the newborn, and that the blood of men does not contain it.

Maple Leaf Club Sired Many Stars

City Youth Organization
Renowned For Its Work

Back in the dismal 1930's a group of young men, fired by the lack of organized and directed recreation for youngsters, decided to do something about it.

Out of that decision grew the now famous Maple Leaf organization operating in the northeast section of the city.

Since its inception in 1931 the organization has been untiring in providing sports activities for district boys in baseball, lacrosse, rugby and soccer football, track and field, and particularly hockey. The organization started in a modest way with entry of a Pee-Wee team in the 1931-32 hockey season. Less than 20 boys were listed on the club's roster that year.

Today the club has extended its scope to practically every branch of athletics and is providing organized games under skilled coaching for between 400 and 500 boys ranging from Pee-Wee to youths in the 18 to 20 age brackets.

In 1938-39 season the club reached its peak and was operating a full slate of hockey teams from bantam to junior clubber, midget, juvenile and junior lacrosse teams, a track and field team that was dominant in the province.

BIG VICTORY
The organization won its first provincial junior rugby championship in 1939 with a victory over Calgary.

MAPLE LEAF'S model home goes on display here tomorrow at 102 street and 102 avenue. Home will be open from 9 a.m. until 11 p.m. each day, except Sundays, until someone claims it.

ship in 1939 with a victory over Calgary.

Provincial titles have been taken by Maple Leaf teams in bantam, midget, juvenile and junior hockey, juvenile and junior lacrosse, junior soccer and rugby.

Maple Leaf teams presently hold the provincial championship in junior rugby, junior soccer, provincial midget and bantam crowns in hockey.

City juvenile and midget baseball crowns, and city Pee-Wee championships are also held by Maple Leaf teams this year.

BIG NAMES

The Maple Leaf hockey club took the championship in the "Pee-Wee" class in its inaugural year, and gave a start to such sterling hockey performers as Mac Gilvillie, later a member of New York Rangers Stanley cup winning team. Other grunts on that team were Ted Allard, present coach of junior hockey team, and Harry Young, a former club secretary.

Maple Leaf graduates who have made a name in organized hockey are Stan Devine, former Edmonton Flyer player now sporting the colors of the Calgary Stampeder; Alex Prindle, member of the pecceding hair line trio currently playing sterling hockey for the Flyers; Ken McAuley, former New York Rangers scummler now coaching the Nelson, B.C. club; Bud McPherson, playing for Cincinnati, and Alberta Newcomers, Don Stanley and Wilbert Delaney, members of the Waterloo Mercurs, the team selected to represent Canada in the 1950 world's championships.

MANY SUPPORTERS
Early supporters of the organization were Frank Drayton, superintendent of city relief and child welfare departments; the late Charlie Field; Russel "Barney" Stanley, outstanding defense man in the hey-day of the Western Canada Hockey league; Charlie Small, former city treasurer, and Art Jackson.

Present officers of the organization were Frank Drayton, president; A. S. Jackson, vice-president; George Harvie, treasurer; Bruce Best, secretary.

Executive members are: Prindle, Harry Young, O. Sullivan, V. Lavence, B. McIndoe, Harry White, T. Allard, F. Arnold, W. Whitehouse, and R. Stewart.

Farm Machinery Sales In Canada Are Britain's Aim

LONDON, Nov. 18.—(CPI)—A determined drive by the United Kingdom for a greater share of the expanding agricultural machinery market in Canada was recommended in a report released last night by the British agricultural machinery mission which made a fact-finding tour of the dominion last spring.

The mission of nine leading British industrialists expressed the belief Britain could sell large quantities of farm machinery in Canada, but said the price differential is a major problem.

The report noted that although Canada imports annually approximately £25,000,000 ($108,500,000) worth of farm machinery, less than one per cent is bought from the United Kingdom. It said there is no doubt that the prairie co-operatives organizations would be pleased to see British agricultural machinery sold in Canada.

Ray Kills Meal Worm, Doesn't Hurt Cereal

WINNIPEG, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Entomologists attached to the Dominion department of agriculture here are testing high-frequency "radio" rays as a means of killing food-contaminating insects. The experiments have been conducted at the Department's Stored Products Insect Laboratory under Fred Watters, a 1947 science graduate from the University of Manitoba. Lethal effect is due to absorption of electrical energy as heat. Material to be treated by the insect-killing rays is placed between two flat metal electrodes and heat is generated uniformly throughout.

Public Drinking Must Be Stopped Court Declares

A drive to curb liquor drinking in public has been started by city police morality and detective departments. Deputy Chief Alex Riddell today pointed to a list of nine persons who appeared in court yesterday for illegal possession of liquor. "More than half these persons were picked up Monday night at Edmonton Gardens after the hockey game," said the deputy. The nine persons were fined a total of $150 and costs by Magistrate A. J. Miller. "This drinking in public places simply will not be tolerated and must stop," he said.

COWBOY NEEDS 6-SHOOTER

Annoyed Dartmoor Lads Kick at Alberta Broncos

LONDON, Nov. 18.—(CP)—The bill men of Dartmoor, Devonshire, are annoyed, further, to let that three Canadian cowboy wranglers any wildwest ponies on the range. Robert Howson, a hard-driving cowboy from Alberta, is known to be in a passel of trouble if he tries to bring his broncs down Dartmoor way.

That—more or less—was the way the Dartmoor folk were talking today when Howson arrived in Liverpool from Canada, wearing fancy, high-heeled boots, a stetson hat and a cowboy outfit. The word got around Dartmoor that Howson, a native of Lancashire who went to Canada 21 years ago and became a cowboy, is importing some western ponies to help replenish the Dartmoor herds.

Howson contends that Dartmoor ponies are too small, and not tough enough, and that a little new blood will help. But the people of Dartmoor, that wild, sparsely-populated land of the southwest English, rose in their wrath to defend their herds.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, Friday, Nov. 18, 1948

They play a public protest meeting if Howson imports any western mounts. They have even protested in the past against Shetland ponies being bred with the Dartmoor breeds, claiming this would spoil the pure Dartmoor breed. Originally it was reported that Howson would bring six wild-west ponies from Canada. But today the word around Dartmoor is that he was bringing 1,000, which were following him in several herds. Miss Calmady Hamblin, secretary of the Dartmoor Pony Society, went as far as to inquire from the British Horse Society whether import licenses for the Canadian horses had been issued.

Safety Drive Laggard Here

Edmonton Safety Council's drive for funds is lagging. Officials of the council, which is asking a total of $15,000 to conduct 1950 safety work, said today that although girls of the Junior League are meeting with good response, donations have been small. Campaign total to date is only $12,410.

Football, Hilarious Adventure on City Theatre Screens

LIFE IS JUST one complication after another when Cary Grant turns up in America as Ann Sheridan's male war bride whose hectic adventures are depicted in film at local movie house. Under title "I Was a Male War Bride", mad-cap comedy moves today to Empress theatre.

PROFESSIONAL football provides setting for RKO's latest picture, Easy Living, which is now showing at the Rialto theatre. Stars appearing in show are Victor Mature, Lucille Ball, Lizabeth Scott, Sonny Tufts and Lloyd Nolan. Film is said to be unusually realistic for its gridiron background as well as dramatic in its heart interest.

Inside Hollywood

By Virginia Macpherson
United Press Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD.—(UP)—Forget whatever you've read about Cleopatra's "Exotic Baths." The movie queens have her outclassed.

Did Cleo ever dunk her curves by candlelight? Did she float atop the soapuds on cork floats? Did she have a private wave-maker for her tub?

CURTAIN TIME

CAPITOL—"MY FRIEND JEMMA." Feature at 12:30, 8:00, 9:05, 7:15, 9:35.

STRAND—"HELLFIRE" and "RIDERS IN THE NORTHWEST MOUNTED."

British Ask Reds To Release Yank

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (UPI)—Britain has joined United States in efforts to get the Chinese Communists to release Angus Ward, the American consul, from his Mukden prison cell, it was disclosed today.

Authoritative sources said the move "offers some hope of success."

L. Stevenson, the British consul at Mukden, China, moved into the case voluntarily. There is a general understanding that Britain will look after U.S. interests in Communist China. The Communists have been less hostile toward the British.

Nope. All the "Nitty of the Nitty" had for originality was milk, strictly class B stuff. Take these modern stunts, now.

When Shelley Winters takes a bath she makes a production number of it. Fills her king-sized tub with her water, puts two cork floats under her head and thighs, and floats the dirt away.

She's the one who has the wave-maker. Says she got the idea from the prop man at Universal-International who roughed up a pond she waded through for "South Sea Sinners."

REALLY RELAXING "It's really a miniature one," says Shelley. But the little waves just ripple over me. Sooooo relaxing."

Marilyn Maxwell does her dunking by candlelight. A lamp at the head of the tub and another at the foot—she says.

She scrubs in time to music, too. Always puts Beethoven's "Hänsel" on the record player before she crawls in.

Dorothy Hart has a reading lamp installed at the end of her tub and says she catches up on more best sellers that way.

And it was May West who had mirrors installed in the bathroom ceiling and on all four walls so she could see herself from every angle.

"Who has a better right to look?" she asked.

Prof. Hart charges, says Richards, that boxing associations in Ontario and Manitoba have refused to abide by international amateur rules.

If action is taken on the report all amateur boxers in Ontario and Manitoba would be denied the right to compete in international meets and dominion championship tournaments.

A copy of Prof. Hart's report has been distributed to AAU branches

The Amateur Athletic Union of the United States has refused to permit interchange of boxers between the US and the provinces of Manitoba and Ontario because of alleged violations of amateur rules.

"Canada now is faced with the possibility that no boxer from Ontario or Manitoba may be eligible to compete in the British Empire Games or indeed in any international competition," says the Harrow report.

The Ontario Athletic Commission apparently wishes to control and legislate for amateur athletics without regard to any other province of country . . .

Remember the Flying Norseman?

'Doc' Dunsworth, as he was known affectionately, if not so professionally, in 'them thar days,' is standing up well to the passing of the years.

Then 'thar days' go back to the 1920s, when the Flying Norseman, to give him another of his nicknames, was a big gent hereabouts in track, tennis and football.

A chance encounter at the Gardens the other night, unloosed a flood of memories: Of track and field meets at the South Side Athletic grounds, with Dr. Dunsworth, Roy Haliburton, Jesse Jones, Ernie Hanna, Harold Haight and more trying to pin each other's ears (or feet) back. Of the late 'Deacon' White's great Belknap football squads (rugby, they called it then), good enough to represent the west twice in what passed as the Grey cup final.

Of tennis tournaments — city, provincial and western Canada — with 'Doc' Dunsworth frequently 'the man to beat'.

Of the days when Wallace Reid, Tom Mix, Vilma Hanky and Lillian Gish rated tops even on Hollywood theatre marquees.

Of the late 'Babe' Ruth, just then coming to his peak. Haliburton, Parney and Hanna, Too . . .

'Doc' Dunsworth was a regular lineman on the football team and he won more city and provincial tennis championships than you could shake a stick at. But once he tied on a pair of spiked shoes, it frequently was a different story.

Roy Haliburton, who boasted a triumph over Charley Paddock, the Pacific Human of those days, was kingly sprinter hereabouts. Result was Dunsworth, like John Parney, Ernie Hanna and others who fancied themselves as pretty swift, cookies, ate a lot of dust thrown up by Haliburton's spikes.

But that didn't act as a brake on Dunsworth's never-flagging enthusiasm for the track and field sport. He trained long hours and frequently as not pushed Haliburton to the limit when the starter's gun went off to signify the real thing.

Athletic careers of Dunsworth and Haliburton were closely linked. Rivals on the child-track and basketball, they were teammates in football and basketball.

Through the years they have remained fast friends. Today, as members of the Touchdown Club, they retain a mutual interest in the grid game.

Those Stirring Tennis Duels

Mention of Dunsworth's tennis accomplishments brings to mind names of other contemporaries: Fred Mitchell, a city and provincial title in his own right; 'Sandy' Doyle, Ted Kane, Gene Carrigan, Harry Gardner, John Oliver, Fred Casselman, Harry Kinloch and others.

Kinloch came along just about the time 'Doc' Dunsworth had played out his string. He promptly took charge, went on to seven city championships, as well as a number of Alberta crowns.

Old Holy Trinity courts, then located at the north end of the S. S. Athletic grounds, frequently were used for the city championships. Many were the stirring battles fought in those 'Torril' Twenties, the game given an added tilt in these parts by the exploits below the border of William (Big Bill) Tilden, 'Little Bill' Johnston and other U. S. Davis cup stars.

One year (it must have been along about 1924), 18-year old Gene Carrigan threw tournament officials for a loss by introducing a steelstrung racket on the local scene.

He used it with considerable success — until the dons finally stepped in and outlawed the bat.

GREY CUP

Stamp Football Squad Entrains for Toronto

CALGARY, Nov. 18.—(CP)—"Tom, are all the boys aboard?" asked Lee Lear, coach of the defending champion Calgary Stampede.

Like an anxious father, Lear was at the station to see his squad off on the eastbound train to Toronto. He was scheduled to leave for the east later last night by plane.

Stampede president Tom Brock, leading the Grey cup squad in his head, assured Lear that his boys were all accounted for. It took and the Stampede will arrive in Toronto Sunday morning and take off for Oakville, Ont., for their final work-up before the toughest final work-up.

FANS CHEERED
About 400 fans were on hand to cheer Stampede on their way. The crowd was unusually subdued until the train pulled out, then they gave cut with loud cheers and cries of "Bring back that cup!"

The team came to the station in a string of groups of two or three. Last to arrive were star ends Woody Strode and Superfoot Anderson. Both were logged out in fringed buckskin jackets and

"I forgot my grip," Superfoot explained to the crowd. "Brook stood on a train step and waved the emblem of the Stampede football supremacy at the Stampede supporters."

"Just remember what I look like," he said. This brought a gasp of "Bring it back, Tom!"

One fan took his life in his hands when he said loudly, "I don't think we'll see it back."

"Whadja mean," came from the crowd in a united yell. With the exception of Lear and Billy Blackden, Stampede outlandish guard who will fly from town to town to join Stampede at Oakville, the whole club was aboard the train.

One large section of Calgary fans going to the Toronto game will leave here in the Stampede special train Monday night. Organized to oust the wild west demonstrators, which was put on at last year's Grey Cup final, the party will bring a 100-foot model train in which four Toronto streets.

Europe Ousts Canada In U.K. Food Market

LONDON, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, yesterday couched a slightly more confident report on the sterling area's gold and dollar reserves with the disclosure that Britain is switching from Canada to Europe for certain food imports.

He said it is true that Britain plans to transfer from Canada to Europe some food purchases—specifically those which Britain took from Canada during the war when she could not get them anywhere else.

"Now we are switching back to our original source of supplies."

He said Canadian eggs fall in this category but gave no details. GARDNER CRITICAL In Ottawa, Agriculture Minister Gardiner said he disagreed with a $21,000,000.

United Kingdom view that Canada was used as a food ladder only during times of war.

"In my opinion," said Mr. Gardiner, "the view that Canada is to be depended on for supplies only during war is rather based on Canadian misfortune."

"I am sure it is not the view of a great many people in Britain."

Britain's decision not to purchase Canadian eggs will mean loss of a $21,000,000 contract, valued at $21,000,000.

THIRTY-FIVE men, women and children, ordered to return from West Germany to Soviet zone after illegal border crossing, start 250-mile trek to Bonn to urge government permission to remain in western zone. Three women collapsed soon after the march of desperation started and were hospitalized. Others hope to obtain food during march by working for farmers along route to Bonn.

Bell Telephone Seeks Interim Rate Boost

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—(UPI)—The Bell Telephone Company served notice to the Board of Transport Commissioners today that it would ask for a surcharge of ten per cent on its present rates in Ontario and Quebec as an interim rate boost pending outcome of its application for an overall 200 per cent increase.

The company notified the board that it would apply formally on Dec. 19 for the increase. Hearings were scheduled for next March on the main application for higher charges.

The proposed 10 per cent cost increase, according to the application, would apply to the following calls:

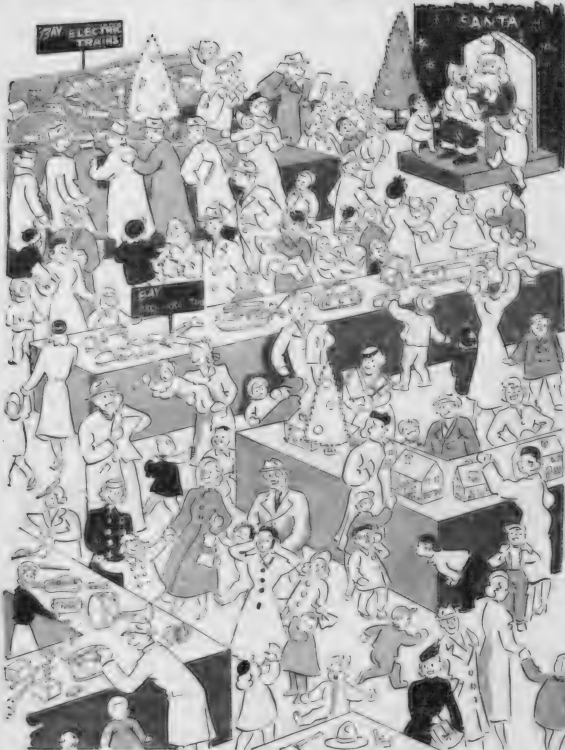

1. Local calls, except from hotels and coin boxes.
2. Long distance calls between points in Ontario and Quebec, but not including calls to or from other provinces, or outside Canada.

Miniature Sweeper To Appear Here Soon

By Red Thrifty

Wonder of wonders! Gadget-grabbers will latch onto a newie I've-uncovered as soon as it appears here. It's a miniature carpet-sweeper designed to quickly pick up lint, table crumbs, spit ashes... with little more than a flick of the wrist.

A plastic-covered brush at the business end... which came quick as a birdie from Regina Sask., is covered with canary yellow-plastic... and flower-sprayed at that too. Brush may be easily cleaned by removing lid of bright plastic top and wiping with a cloth. Price is right too. This major marvel costs but a pittance... around the dollar mark... of a million of use to the time it takes to use. And it's yours. I'll tell you know the very minute they arrive in town.

Visions of times to come nearly threw me from my little feet today. In close conversation with a visiting comedian today, I heard the women will soon have their hair to blend or match their costume of the day. Imagine wearing chignons, hats to match your hair, and what would you do with your hair to match a pink suit or a human kangaroo? Would he be a problem?

Not seriously make, seems the multitudes are available in the United States now. Can't say as I like the idea too much... how about you girls? You know, I'm serious when I say to go with a certain shade of hair and if we were interested in what the Chinese red in go with my new frock.

Daughters, Sons Must Share Responsibility

These days... We are a family of two sons and two daughters, all married. Our financial concerns are all on a par. Recently our mother became seriously ill, necessitating doctors' visits and the extra expenses of hospital care. I feel sure that all of us have a suggestion we can make to help us spend the time and money equally as that the burden would not rest on one person's shoulders. When the doctors have concluded that a very small amount of medicine will do the trick, we pay the bill. But it is the duty of the sons and daughters to share the expense equally as that the burden would not rest on one person's shoulders. ### Vitamin-Consciousness Helps Build Health

By Josephine Lowman

I am going to repeat part of an amusing and also a valuable letter, which came to me recently. It said: "I wish you would stress the importance of the vitamins in the diet. The other day I saw a woman in a grocery store chasing a clerk all over the floor to be sure a can of dog food contained all the proper food elements and vitamins and minerals. It was very important to her that her dog get all the essentials that he would be full of pep and vigor. Then she took home a loaf of white bread and a package of macaroni for herself and her loved ones. It is true that many dogs are better fed than the humans who own them. The real meaning of good food is not that it tastes good, although of course it should. It is that it contains the vitamins and minerals that are essential to health. If you would like to have my leaflet No. 27 'Vitamin Defence' send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper."

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Sensitive People Have Sense of Insecurity

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

What do we mean when we say that people are "sensitive"? Do we mean that actually their feelings are more acute than those of others? Or do we mean that they have a terrific sense of inferiority which makes it essential for them to be perpetually building them up, else they will be hurt? Why should any growing child envy another for his or her sense of self-dependence and accomplishment? The person whose feelings must be considered is demanding that of his friends and acquaintances. There is a learned to please-for around her feelings in order that they will be satisfied. I have known many sensitive people, who are very easily and easily wounded. There will be little help for your child until you cease to look upon him as sensitive. He will continue to be sensitive because you expect it of him and have no labelled him. It is quite evident you are still clinging to your own sensitivity as a mark of distinction as an individual. By now, you should have outgrown this.

Baby Saved From Burial

CALGARY, Nov. 18.—(CP)—A seven-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bishop of Calgary is recovering today from shock and exposure after being nearly buried alive by two neighborhood children, aged three and five.

A neighbor of the Bishops yesterday rescued the child when she saw "something wriggling in the dirt" at the side of the Bishop house where the two children were playing. The baby had been almost covered with earth.

The neighbor, Mrs. Higgins, said the baby also was smeared with paint and the children had apparently tried to place it in a paint tin.

Mrs. Bishop had left the baby in a crib on the back porch while she went to look for her four-year-old son.

Coal Strike Again Looms

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(UP)—A new day's coal strike in the U.S. seemed a certainty today unless John L. Lewis and the operators get together on a new contract.

President Truman held his news conference late yesterday that he has no plans to intervene until the strike, if it occurs, begins to threaten the nation's economy.

To the surprise of most of his labor advisers, the President directed plans to set up a special fact-finding board to investigate the dispute and recommend a settlement. Under this plan, Lewis would have been asked to delay the strike for about 60 days.

MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Christmas mail, over 15,000,000 letters, is being sent out today, the largest volume of mail ever to leave Canada since, according to post office officials, has been loaded aboard the 20,000-ton Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France.

Passengers who will sail include R. C. Austin, Edmonton, of the Alberta Liquor Control Board.

$60,000 Calgary Fire Gets Arsonist 10 Years

CALGARY, Nov. 18.—(CP)—John Romanick, 25, of Windsor, court, Alta., was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment in Prince Albert penitentiary when he pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge of arson. Magistrate G. H. Rose said Romanick was "one of the most dangerous types of criminals existing."

Romanick admitted in court he had stored an ingenious "time bomb" style device in the Johnston Storage and Carriage Co. warehouse here. The device caused a fire Nov. 4, which caused an estimated $60,000 damage.

The court was told Romanick had placed a "machine" in a cart which he stored with the company in the hope of collecting $400 in insurance after his property was destroyed by fire. Fire Chief J. T. Shelly said Romanick's arson machine was the most complete machine to start a blaze he had seen in 42 years of fire fighting.

Traffic Safety Is 1950 Project

Protection Of Children Object Of West Drive

Traffic safety and civic betterment last night became the main project of the West Edmonton Business Association, at a well attended meeting in Corona hotel with President Jack Jewell in the chair.

A demand for high school car drivers' instruction courses, and for road tests for all prospective drivers, was made by Mrs. L. North, representing Mungie Home and School Association. She also said her association's school zone marked more conspicuously, with brightly-colored "school zone" signs placed in streets.

Armored Reich Unlikely Now

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(UP)—The Atlantic Pact Council meets today with assurance from President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson that the United States has no plans for limited rearmament of Western Germany.

The President and Acheson, in the past 48 hours both have devalued reports some U.S. officials favor the German republic having a few military divisions, presumably U.S. equipped.

It was believed the views of Mr. Truman and Acheson were based only on the present state of world affairs. Some officials believe sooner or later the council and the U.S. must decide whether to include Western Germany's manpower and defense potential in common defense plans for the western world. German participation, they believe, will be essential to success.

Today's council meeting was its second in history.

Plan Trade Drive

LONDON, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Two hundred British manufacturers of agricultural machinery have been called to meet Nov. 26 to plan an effort to drive to west a major portion of the Canadian market from United States producers.

Greater rewards should be given to children participating in AMA safety patrols, said Mr. Nichols. Primary responsibility for traffic safety falls on the city administration, said A. O. Millon, principal of Oliver school.

More traffic lights were advocated by Joe Kalil, chairman of West Edmonton traffic committee.

Alderman William Hawerak said eight per cent of accidents are accidental, but 92 per cent are "preventable" or avoidable.

Ald. Dick Hanks suggested the city administration has tagged in street signs—particularly on Jasper and Whyte avenues, where many police have been removed, and no signs put up to replace them.

He said he will support a bill to be introduced by the West Edmonton Business Association asking for more signs.

A favorite food of Holland is the "bake sandwich" which consists of a slice of butter cake between two slices of bread.

The other end of the wire was tied to the brake on the gramophone turntable. When the wire was pulled tight the brake was released, the turntable revolved and an abrasive attached to it rubbed against a match which in turn lighted a wick. The wick led to the bottle filled with shaving.

RAIL LINK WOULD LOSE $50 MILLION ANNUALLY

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—(UP)—The government is interested in the construction of a rail link through British Columbia to Alaska, but any such railway would stand to lose about $50,000,000 a year at the present time, External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson said today.

The difficulties to be faced were largely financial, Pearson told the Commons. It was estimated during the war that it would cost some $12,000,000 to build a light railway, while it probably now would cost "well over $100,000,000" to build a standard gauge railway.

The government was interested in any transportation development in the northwest, he said, and would be glad to discuss plans for a rail link to Alaska with the United States government.

Pearson recalled that Congress had passed a bill approving the railway to Alaska and authorizing the U.S. government to construct Canada on its construction. However, he also noted that no appropriations bill to cover construction costs had been passed.

The contraption began from an old hand-cranked gramophone. The case was intact, but two holes were cut in either side of the turntable. In these were placed a pop bottle filled with shaving and another filled with gasoline.

Attached to the box was an alarm clock and tied to the alarm key was a piece of wire. Chief Shelly theorized that when the alarm went off, the winding key turned around. This pulled in the wire and wound the wire up like a wick.

West Jasper Still Has Lone Policeman

No Action Taken As Yet To Supply Additional Man

By John McLean
Bulletin Staff Reporter

West Jasper Place, a sprawling hamlet of 8,000, is still a "happy hunting ground" for after-dark prowlers.

While minds are made up about the hamlet's police problem, residents go in fear during night hours.

More than three months ago, Stony Plain municipal council voted $150 a month to be paid an extra cent to help the aged police officer on duty now there.

Today, 64-year-old Earl Parslow is still burdened with the responsibility of keeping law and order in the wide-spread community.

It is being sought from the RCMP.

Mrs. Fred Galbraith, who lives with her husband at 1025-135 street, has been frightened by someone knocking at her door at night.

"My husband was at work," she related, "so I called out, 'Who's there?' I thought it might be one of the neighbors."

Mrs. Galbraith said she went up to the door and called out again. "There was no answer."

Attempts at arson. Both Mrs. Galbraith and Mrs. George McCormack, 1022-135 street, said of finding bits of charcoal and paper stuffed under the door.

"Someone," Mrs. McCormack said, "obviously has been trying to burn our homes down."

"Thank goodness they're amateurs at the job."

Mrs. McCormack found a bit of charcoal wood under her window several days ago.

She recalled she had heard someone run across her driveway the night previous. She had run outside, armed with a bread knife, but had found no one there.

Chased with knife. Mrs. McCormack told how her 19-year old daughter, Pat, was afraid to go out alone at night.

Pat McCormack is the pretty brunette, who several months ago was chased home through darkened streets by a knife-wielding stranger.

Wrote to premier. Mrs. P. L. Teitzel, 905-135 street, and Mrs. W. L. Browne, who run a grocery in West Jasper Place, are among the "happy hunting ground" for after-dark prowlers.

Contributions In West Jasper Assist Schools

West Jasper Place residents are moving books from home to school.

In order to provide adequate library material for schools, the West Jasper Place Home Association is sponsoring a campaign to collect books from private homes.

Each family in the district is being asked to contribute one book.

Members of the Association heard Aleta Vikas, Public Library staff member, discuss the contemporary children's books, at their recent meeting at the school.

Early Treaty Seen For Japan

TOKYO, Nov. 18.—(AP)—The increasing possibility of an early peace treaty with Japan finds the occupation withdrawing steadily from Japanese affairs.

For some time now—and faster recently—General Douglas MacArthur's command has been handing more "sovereignty" back to the Japanese. More occupation personnel have been withdrawn from jobs directly affecting Japanese internal affairs.

Atom Available To Industry Here

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Canadian industries can obtain the same information about atomic energy as is issued to industries in the United Kingdom and the United States, External Affairs Minister Pearson said last night in the Commons.

Canada already had called industries in and explained to them available uses of radioisotopes. The government was offering free to industries a one-year supply of isotopes.

wellness officer in the hamlet, he said, "I will devote to patrolling the wide-spread area."

He ended a pessimistic note: "To tell you the truth," he said, "I don't think they're going to do anything about it at all."

The 64-year-old retired farmer has no hope in policing the sprawling community of more than 8,000.

Not enough. Parslow doesn't think $150 is enough to get an RCMP constable for West Jasper Place.

"I was talking to a Mountie just recently," he recalled. "He said it would take at least $200 a year to have one posted here."

The aged constable has added duties which take up his time. As

Looks Like Photo Finish For Biggest Liar Of 1949

By Harman W. Nichols
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(UPI)—This is the season for lies—just before the Burlington (Wis.) Liars Club picks the biggest liar of 1949.

Otis C. Hulet, club president, has forwarded some dandies which are entered in this year's contest. Lie entries have come from all over the world.

A gentleman from Panther Burn, Mass., sent in this:

"I had a mule which wasn't good at much else so I taught him to pick cotton. He picked the blooms with his teeth until about half an hour before quitting time. Then he would back into his job and kick 'em off. It seemed to work better and faster backward at the finish line. He came up to the finish line two pounds behind, turned and kicked enough into his back to win."

Fred E. Prior of Ashland, Ill., says his wife is right proud of a bowl of gull fish she has at home. Two little fish and one big one. Also among the family pets is a cat, which likes fish.

For a long time the cat was content to "sit and watch," as Fred put it, "purring once in a while." But finally the cat pawed up the rim of the bowl and had a direct look.

Gave him the works. "That big fish," says Fred, "let him have it. He did a quick turn around the bowl, reached his tail and water slapped the tabby in the puss. The cat didn't have much use for fish any more."

Tom H. McCreve of Philadelphia wears in a boated entry that his uncle has a garden so fertile that he has to fetch along a machete when he walks through his ball-ore to pick the shoots from his peg leg.

Herman Schelling of Chill, Wis., who described himself as a "member of the Liars Club," comes up with this one:

"The lake looked good so I went fishing for musky one morning. I took along some bottle beer, plus my tackle. I rowed out a piece and started to bail up when I discovered I had forgotten the bait. I was in a what-the-hell mood so I tied a hook and lead onto a bottle of that fine Wisconsin beer. I pitched 'er in. I didn't have to wait long before I had a tug on my line and a fight on my hands. I played with that guy for half an hour, finally I got him alongside and pulled him in. He was very gentle then. I thought I had a dead fish on my hands. But no. He was just drunk. The musky had yanked the cap off that bottle of beer, finished same, and was hanging onto the top of the bottle for dear life."

Tough assignment. Mrs. Joseph Warren of Manchester, Ia., has a friend who has a cousin in Arkansas.

This cousin of the friend loved nothing better than to go possum hunting. But like his cousin dog, he's long. Longer than the dog in fact. So the cousin of the friend educated the house, taught the guy to do all the hunting.

"This cousin of my friend," the lady from Iowa writes, "went even further than that. He cut beside the size of the possum skins he would like to have. Then he'd show it to the dog . . . and away the dog would go and bring back the right size possum. One day, the wife of the cousin of my friend was doing some ironing and the cousin of my friend was asleep. The dog looked at the ironing board. He went yipping into the house. They heard of the pup once from a friend of the friend of the cousin-in-Louisiana. And not long ago one of the family, got a letter saying the dog had been seen in Florida. This cousin of my friend concluded he had raised a "no-good critter. Dumb, too."

Student Carnival Aids School Body. West Jasper Place Students' Union's recent carnival netted $35 for the group's activities. It was announced today.

Director of the carnival was J. W. Moody, and committee members included Deryn McLaughlin, Frank Cliff, Frank Bruha, Orval Root, Betty Lou Allen, Mary Mackay, Barbara Steiner, Lynn Templeton, Mary Borden, Charles Shultz, Art Cunningham, Carol Case and Helen Washburn.

Raffle prizes were won by Mrs. W. L. Stewart, Mrs. W. R. Rinehart, Wenterburn, and Mrs. William Hicks.
